

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself through excellence in education; and

Whereas, Crystal Kleindienst of Williamsburg, Missouri, will be honored for achieving National Board Certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards during a recognition ceremony to be held January 28, 2004, in the Rotunda of the Missouri State Capitol; and

Whereas, to achieve National Board Certification, Crystal Kleindienst volunteered to participate in a lengthy and rigorous assessment of her teaching abilities and skills, which can take up to three years to complete; and

Whereas, Crystal Kleindienst is the first teacher in the North Callaway County School District to achieve such certification; and

Whereas, Crystal Kleindienst has played an integral role in the educational development of countless young people as a seventh and eighth grade social studies teacher with the North Callaway County R-I School District in Kingdom City; and

Whereas, Crystal Kleindienst has accomplished many achievements that include her role as Chairperson of the District's Professional Development Committee; and

Whereas, now in her tenth year of teaching, Crystal Kleindienst found opportunities as a special services teacher for six years prior to becoming a seventh and eighth grade social studies teacher; and

Whereas, a graduate of the North Callaway County R-I School District, Crystal Kleindienst has been abundantly blessed with the love and admiration of her two wonderful children, Ethan and Ashley:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Crystal Kleindienst at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Crystal Kleindienst.
